SPEAKERS

Dan Murphy, DC, DABCO graduated magna cum laude from Western States Chiropractic College in 1978. He received his Diplomate in Chiropractic Orthopedics in 1986. Since 1982, Dr. Murphy has served as a part-time undergraduate faculty at Life Chiropractic College West, teaching classes in the management of spinal disorders. Since 1991, Dr. Murphy has written a quarterly column in the American Journal of Clinical Chiropractic, with more than 68 columns appearing to date. Three times, Dr. Murphy was awarded the Post-Graduate Educator of the Year award, given by the International Chiropractic Association. In 2003, he was awarded Chiropractor of the Year by Chiropractic Biophysics. Dr. Murphy has been the vice president of the International Chiropractic Association since 2003.

Jonathan Mulholland, DC, CCSP, CSCS is a licensed and accomplished professional chiropractor, exercise scientist, and strength and conditioning specialist with more than 14 years of experience with athletes of all ages and dealing with a variety of sports injuries. Dr. Mulholland has played an integral role in the training and rehab of multiple Olympic medal winners and professional athletes. He is formerly the chief-of-staff at the largest natural health care clinic in the state of Minnesota, overseeing a multidisciplinary group of chiropractors, nurses, massage therapists, acupuncturists and professors. He is currently the sports medicine consultant for the New Zealand Olympic cycling teams and their team doctor for the 2012 London Olympic Games.

Georgia Nab, DC, ACN is a 1994 graduate of Cleveland Chiropractic College - Kansas City. Dr. Nab owned a successful chiropractic clinic in Wichita, Kan., before joining Standard Process' health and wellness team in 2012. She currently provides chiropractic care, nutrition counseling and nutrition education training to more than 300 employees at the company's corporate headquarters. Dr. Nab is certified in applied kinesiology and nutrition. Dr. Nab is currently attending the University of Western States to earn her master's degree in human nutrition and functional medicine. She also works with Affiliated Monitors, Inc.™, an independent monitoring company for professionals, and is a member of the American Chiropractic Association, the Wisconsin Chiropractic Association, and the Chiropractic Society of Wisconsin.

Steve Passantino, DC has been a medical reviewer with the Workers' Compensation Division since April 2011. Before joining the division, Dr. Passantino was a disability determination analyst with Disability Determination Services for two years. Prior to coming to work for the State of Oregon, he worked for five years as an operator/foreman for an excavating company and 15 years in full-time practice as a chiropractor, specializing in sports medicine.

Dan Sheppard, DC has been a medical reviewer with the Oregon Workers' Compensation Division since October 2009. He received his doctor of chiropractic from Life Chiropractic College West in Hayward, Calif. in 2001. Upon graduation, he began practicing privately in his hometown of Costa Mesa, Calif. Dr. Sheppard became a qualified medical evaluator and specialized in workers' compensation in an MD/DC practice setting. He is also an Oregon Department of Justice certified core mediator.
