

British Columbia
Chiropractic
Association

ROADMAP TO PRACTICE IN BC – LICENSURE AND INSURANCE

1. COLLEGE OF CHIROPRACTORS OF BC

The College of Chiropractors of British Columbia (CCBC) is BC's regulatory body that licenses chiropractors, sets and enforces standards of practice to protect the public.

Questions: 604-742-6470 registration@chirobc.com

CCBC Full Registration process: Click Here

CCBC Student Registration process: Click Here

Note: You can submit your application and pay the application fee before you receive your CCEB results

You will need your CCBC license number for your CCA and CCPA membership applications

Estimated processing time: minimum 4 weeks from submission of application and all documents

2. BRITISH COLUMBIA CHIROPRACTIC ASSOCIATION

The British Columbia Chiropractic Association (BCCA) is your professional membership association. Our role is to advance the chiropractic profession through advocacy, promotion, and support.

Questions: 604-270-1332 info@bcchiro.com

BCCA membership application: Click Here (you'll need a portal account)

When your membership application is Conditionally Approved, you'll receive an email inviting you back into the portal to complete the application.

BCCA offers dues sponsorship for new graduates (New Grad Terms & Conditions). Those who choose to take advantage of sponsorship must enroll in the BCCA Pre-Authorized Payment program. This includes submitting a PAP form and VOID cheque.

Note: You can apply to BCCA as soon as your application is complete with CCBC

BCCA will communicate application status to CCA and CCPA, confirmation of CCPA membership to CCBC, and confirmation of licensure to CCPA.

Estimated processing time: 7 business days from application completion to active practice

British Columbia
Chiropractic
Association

3. CANADIAN CHIROPRACTIC ASSOCIATION

The Canadian Chiropractic Association (CCA) is your national professional membership association. The CCA promotes and supports the profession, helps to set the direction, and create a unified voice at the national level.

Questions: 416-585-7902/1-877-222-9303 membership@chiropractic.ca

Information on CCA New Grad Membership: Click Here

CCA Membership Application: Click Here

Note: You will need your CCBC license number for your CCA application

4. CANADIAN CHIROPRACTIC PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION

The Canadian Chiropractic Protective Association (CCPA) provides its members with access to professional liability insurance that is created specifically for chiropractors in Canada.

Questions: 416-781-5656/1-800-668-2076 admin@ccpaonline.ca

CCPA Website: Click Here

*Note: You will need your CCBC license number, your CCEB certificate, active memberships with BCCA & CCA

You can fill out the "initial application" online before you receive your CCBC license number. CCPA will forward full application upon confirmation of status from CCBC, BCCA & CCA