

UWS Community Service 2019 Scholarship Application

An important element of the UWS Mission Statement is encouraging students to participate in activities and projects that provide meaningful service to the campus, the integrative health profession, and our community. The University of Western States Community Service Scholarship was established to support student engagement in such activities.

Scholarships will be awarded to recipients selected by the UWS Scholarship Committee. Scholarship amounts will be determined based on a number of factors, including available funds and the strength of applications received each award cycle.

Eligibility criteria:

- Enrollment in a UWS degree or certificate seeking program during Spring 2019
- Good academic standing, with a minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA
- Demonstration of a record of meaningful campus, professional, and/or community involvement
